AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE AIRDOME.

Another big crowd witnessed the performance at the Airdome last night and applauded the mixture of music and fun, which Charlie LeRoy and Frank Rich have named "The Married Widow." The piece is full of good musical numbers and introduces some striking electrical effects. It also has a number of good laughs. The girls all wear new costumes and introduce some brand new stunts and marches.

BIG CROWDS AT HAPPY HOUR.

The new bill at the Happy Hour is drawing large crowds and the Juvenile Entertainers are proving the big drawing card of the program. Freed and Bertin also come in for a good share of applause. They put on a singing, dancing and talking act. There will be a change of program tomorrow night. The summer prices of 5 and 10 cents with reserved seats at 20c, prevails.

MEXICAN HELD ON A CHARGE OF BURGLARY

On a charge of burglary, Juan Estrada was held by justice Watson to the district court Wednesday morning and went to jail in default of a $500 bond. The testimony showed that Estrada, with a companion, was caught in the act of trying to force an inner door to a pool room at 417 South El Paso street, owned by a Japanese; also that they had gained entrance to the building by forcing the outer door with a heavy file. The companion's name is Paul Barilla.

BEER A WEATHER PROPHECY.

Among the officials at the city hall, city assessor Behr is obtaining considerable reputation as a weather prophet. He prophesied the rains of over a week ago, and also stated Tuesday that there would be a near shower Tuesday night. There was. It was very nearly a shower—three drops fell. Now Mr. Behr comes out with the statement that there will be no more rains until July 23.
